

SPD (social democratic party of Germany) Executive Committee

Overview of the Event

Events organised by political parties, government agencies and embassies require particularly careful planning and execution to ensure the highest level of service quality in all areas, as well as professional cooperation between the police, private security personnel and all other security agencies involved:

On January 7, 2009 the executive committee of the SPD held a stylish evening at the Meistersaal at Berlin's Potsdamer Platz. Needless to say, the well-known guests, including Vice-Chancellor Frank-Walter Steinmeier and six federal ministers, walked along a red carpet leading up to the Meistersaal, where they were treated to a champagne reception. After a welcoming speech by party leader Franz Müntefering, a sumptuous buffet was opened. Afterwards the evening finished off cosily.

Responsibilities

- Planning, full service organisation and execution of the event
- Provision of service and security personnel and entertainment and event equipment
- Overall catering coordination and supervision by world champion chef Ronny Pietzner
- Coordination of all persons involved in the event
- Coordination and supervision of all set-up, take-down and finishing activities
- Continuous and detailed coordination with security agencies and close protection officers

Date

January 7, 2009

Attendance

100

